WOMAN'S RIGHTS.—Laura DeForce Gordon, a defeated candidate for the State Senate of California, delivered a lecture at the U. S. District Court room, last night, the subject of which, according to the announcement, was, "Our next great political problem." The audience was composed of about thirty persons, of whom one was a lady, ten were boys, who had to be admitted free, in order to stop the noise they were making by banging open the door and rushing up and down the stairs; the remainder being young men, who having quarters to spare, gave them for some anticipated sport. "Our next great political problem" was universal, and, of course, woman suffrage, the usual argument, in support of which she advanced with a fluency and self-confidence that plainly showed she had used it on many previous occasions. Every adult human being, she thinks, ought to have the right to vote, except lunatics and criminals in confinement; and the disfranchisement of the people of the South she held in the greatest abomination. She was severe upon the inequality of wages paid men and women for the same work, asserting that it cost a woman as much to live as a man, and mentioning that upon one occasion when making arrangements for the accommodation of delegates to a convention in California, the hotel keeper had charged the woman half a dollar a day more than the men, but gave as an excuse that he furnished the former better rooms. She also denounced the well-to-do women—those who could get along without work—for performing manual labor to the great injury of those who were compelled to work for their support, and said that throughout the New England States it was no uncommon thing to see women whose husbands and fathers were rich, and whose sons and brothers were at college, binding shoes and making button holes in suspenders, thereby creating cheap labor and taking away the means of support from those who had to other way of earning a living. The laws of Virginia with regard to women were heinous, and she had been told by a lawyer in Richmond that not long ago in that city the property of an heiress was seized by the creditors of her husband before her father's corpse had been removed from the house. As a reason why women should act as jurors she read a long letter from Judge Howe of Wyoming, in which he stated that a jury composed of six men and six women did not stay together in a room for four days, but that at bed time the women and men were separated and marched off under sworn officers to different apartments. To prevent women being insulted at the polls, she would have a Freedwoman's Bureau to protect the colored people. She concluded by declaring that she intended going to the Cincinnati Convention, and that if her claims were not recognized there, she would make her appearance at the Philadelphia Convention, and at all the National political Conventions that were to be held until she found one which would accord to women the right to vote, and that if none of them would rise to the exigencies of the occasion, the woman would hold a Convention of their own, nominate candidates for President and Vice President, and what was more, elect them.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.—During the temporary absence of the Mayor his court this morning was presided over by H. L. Simpson, esq., President of the Board of Aldermen.

Henry Bish, for disorderly conduct, was discharged upon the payment of the amount charged for hiring him in a cart to the station house.

James Thomas, colored, committed to jail yesterday on the charge of a violent assault last Christmas upon another colored man named Patterson Garthwright, was re-examined and re-committed.

A colored man named Jones, for disorderly conduct and shooting in the street, was fined and discharged.

James Holmes, colored, for disorderly conduct, was discharged for want of evidence.

NIGHT REPORT.—Night dark, cloudy, misty and rainy. There were no disturbances. Three prisoners were at the station house.

AN UNLUCKY DRIVE.—A gentleman of this city, on Saturday last, hired a horse and buggy from Mr. Wm. Legg's livery stable, and drove as far as Fall's Church. At that place he took the bridle off the horse, and he walked around to its back to pull it straight, but in order to take hold of the halter, he had to raise the top. The horse seeing the buggy top rising behind and apparently falling over upon him, became alarmed and ran off, smashing the vehicle to pieces. The gentleman procured a wagon and came back to town leaving the hired horse in charge of a resident of the neighborhood, who, Mr. Legg says, rode him all day Sunday, and so hard, that when the latter got possession of him again he was foundered stiff.

THE FISHERY.—Fishtown this morning presented a busy appearance. All the packers have commenced operations, and the country people, too, have begun to lay in their supplies. Gangs of cutters were at work all along the wharves, and many off bearers and other necessary hands found employment there. The largest cargo of the season, 21,000 herring arrived this morning from the shore of Mr. Joseph Beasley, at Arkendale. For the first time this season scines were hauled at Marsh Hall, Stony Point and High Point yesterday. Nearly all the fishermen, except those who fish Chapman's Landing, have commenced operations, and if the present weather holds good a glut of fish is expected. Some of the finest herring seen this season were caught yesterday in Cameron Run.

REPORTED CASE OF SMALL-POX.—A colored man named Gaskins, a sailor belonging to the sloop Hooper, lying at the Duke street wharf, was reported this morning to have been attacked by small-pox. Several physicians examined him and there was a difference of opinion as to the genuineness of the disease, but in order to avoid all possibility of danger, the collector of the port ordered the captain of the vessel to carry him to Georgetown and put him in the Marine hospital there. The sloop was towed over to the Maryland flats until it could be ascertained whether or not admission into the hospital could be obtained for him.

CANAL TRADE.—The Cumberland News of yesterday, says:—"For a week past we have had the satisfaction of chronicling 'big work' on the canal. We have now the gratification of announcing a 'bigger day,' as on Saturday last forty-five boats were loaded and dispatched from this port, carrying 4,927.01 tons of coal. It is rarely that the shipments have exceeded this amount, and the business upon the canal since its opening has thus far been remarkably good."

CLAIM OF REV. MR. JOHNSTON.—In the House of Representatives, yesterday, Mr. Eldridge, of Wisconsin, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill to correct an error in the enrolment of the bill for the relief of Rev. Jas. T. Johnston, of Alexandria, which was passed. The bill was formerly passed by the House and Senate, but it was vetoed by the President on account of an error, which has now been corrected.

RETAINED LETTERS.—The following letters are detained in the Postoffice for want of stamps: B. Bear & Son, Gordonsville, Va.; John Johnson, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. Martley, O. & A. R. R.; Jas. H. Ortee, White Glady; T. D. Spindle, Sperryville, Va.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge E. M. Lowe presiding.—When the Gazette's report of yesterday's proceedings of the Corporation Court closed, a jury was being impaneled for a new trial of Newton Smith, colored, charged with the murder of an infant child, the progeny of himself and a white girl. D. L. Smoot, Commonwealth's Attorney, conducted the prosecution and C. E. Stuart appeared as counsel for the defense. The following jurors having been impaneled: Park Agnew, Henry B. Chagett, Chas. R. Joyce, John Letherland, G. P. Berkley, D. D. Gould, J. F. Muir, Frederick Pelt, Wm. T. Horrick, Wm. Wolf, Jos. Kaufman, and Wm. Baker, the examination of witnesses was commenced.

Martha Ferguson was examined and testified: The child was born Monday morning about 10 o'clock early in December 1870; on Tuesday or Wednesday following went to see Smith and he acknowledged the child to be his; promised to take it to his mother at Mt. Vernon and leave it there; on some night he came to my house and went into the room where my daughter and child were; asked him if it was his child and he said yes; my daughter said he was the father of the child; the night following, at 9 o'clock, Smith came to my house to get the child, saying that he had obtained a place near Diagonal pump for the child to board till he could take it to his mother's, near Mt. Vernon, to be raised and cared for; I said he had better leave it with me till he could take it directly to his mother; he said no, he would take it then and carry it to the place near the Diagonal pump; when I asked him who was the woman that was to take care of the child, he said he had forgotten her name; it was a girl child; was in a healthy condition when given by me to Smith; was clothed in a white flannel skirt, white cotton dress and white skirt; its waist was banded with a piece of white flannel, which was fastened with pins; the child was wrapped up in a shawl when I gave it to Smith; afterwards I identified this shawl at Mayor's office; I offered to put more clothing around the child, but Smith objected; said he had a cape on and would protect it with that; the child was very near white and not deformed; had a fine suit of long straight black hair; my daughter was a servant at Mansion House, and Smith, who is a mulatto, lived there at same time; she had been there nearly a year; I fed the child on milk and water from its birth to the time Smith took it; before giving it to Smith I gave it some toddy; my daughter was 15 years of age at the time of the birth of the child.

Cross-examined: Never knew this thing was happening until the birth of the child, never saw child afterwards, nor any of the clothing except the shawl.

Hugh Latham was called and testified: I am Mayor of Alexandria city; have known Smith as a servant at Mansion House; I don't know Harrier Ferguson; I had a conversation with Smith at Mayor's office in December 1870; from information I had received, I sent for Smith to come to me; I asked what he did with the child he took from Mrs. Ferguson; he said he had taken it to his mother's, near Mt. Vernon, and that he returned same night in time to perform his duties at the hotel; I told him that he must go after the child next day and return and produce the child to me; the afternoon following about five o'clock as I was going out of the outside door of my office on my way home, as I opened the door Smith was there and walked in; I invited him into my private office, and I said, Smith where is the child? why didn't you bring it? said he, Mr. Latham I couldn't; I have not been for some time; said Smith, I fear that the child found then on the commons is the child you took from Mrs. Ferguson's; what is the name of the child? He replied, His reply was I was doing as I know I didn't know what I was doing; he was then committed for further examination, and subsequently Smith was examined by Justice May and committed for trial; I was present and asked Smith how he came to strip the child; he replied, Mr. Latham do you suppose I would strip the poor little thing; I asked him what he did with the shawl which was around the child when Mrs. Ferguson gave it to him; he said it was at the Mansion House, and designated the room and locality in the room; he said the shawl was under a bed or mattress; the shawl was sent for and found and identified by Mrs. Ferguson.

The jury was then adjourned till to-day when the case was resumed.

Rules awarded against John R. Landen and Henry Callan, were discharged with costs.

The rule awarded against J. Wheat, was discharged without costs.

May E. Triplett vs. G. Appich's Ex'x, in debt; and J. Q. Hewlett & Son vs. Julius Drafus, in debt. These causes are dismissed.

M. D. Ball Surviving vs. J. R. Bigelow, in case ordered to be dismissed.

P. Ballenger vs. Carter—removal: rule against plaintiff to employ counsel.

The Court then adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

TO DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.—The case of the Commonwealth against Newton Smith was resumed to-day, Justice Samuel Beach, Dr. French and Dr. Powell being the witnesses examined, the latter giving his evidence as this report closed at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

MARKET HOUSE STEEPLE.—As will be seen by a notice elsewhere in to-day's Gazette, the committee, appointed at the citizens' meeting last April, to make collections for rebuilding the market house steeple, has been called together again. It is understood that of the required $5,000 about thirty-five hundred have been raised, and the proposed meeting is for the purpose of devising a way by which the deficiency can be made up.

NEW LIGHT HOUSE.—A new light house, 42 feet in height and 42 feet in diameter, of wrought iron, weighing 135,000 pounds, intended to be erected on the Thimble, the entrance to Hampton Roads, to take the place of the Willoughby Spit light-house, has been inspected in Washington, and will be immediately shipped to its destination.

DEATH.—We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Susan Maule Funsten, widow of the late Col. David Funsten. She died early this morning at her late residence on Seminary Hill. She was a most amiable and excellent lady, beloved by all who knew her. She leaves a large family of children, and numerous relations and friends to lament her loss.

PERSONAL.—Mr. S. C. Neale, delegate from this city to the Legislature, has returned from Richmond. Mr. N. has been a faithful and efficient representative, ever alive to the interests of his constituents and the good of the State, and his course has given general satisfaction. He has been warmly welcomed back by his numerous friends.

MR. UHLER'S CONDITION.—The condition of Mr. L. E. Uhler, who was injured by the gas explosion at the Citizens' National Bank, last week, which was thought to be daily improving, took an unfavorable turn last night, and this morning the patient was delirious.

TURTLE SOUP.—Nothing is better for a lunch than a plate of good turtle soup, and that made by William Jones, Mr. Coleman's, caterer and sent to this office at noon to-day, with the collaterals, was about as good as any ever made by any body.

DISBANDED.—Humboldt Lodge of Good Brother's, a German organization of this city, in consequence of the apathy of its members, disbanded last Sunday night.

CITY COUNCIL.—A regular semi-monthly meeting of the City Council will be held at eight o'clock to-night.

FROM WASHINGTON.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 9, 1872.

In the Senate, to-day, the House bill granting the mail on 6th street came up.

Mr. Morrill, of Vt., urged his objections to the bill. He said that the effect of making this grant would be to ruin forever the prospect of making Washington a beautiful city. It was well to cultivate the public taste of the people, but yet everything was to be sacrificed to a railroad company. Congress had no power to make this grant, for in the session act of Maryland it was declared that this land "shall remain and be for the use of the United States."

He thought the bill should go to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

Mr. Cragin favored the bill and thought it should go to the Committee on the District of Columbia.

Mr. Cameron expressed his views in favor of the bill. He said he did not own a dollar of the stock on this road, but he was interested in the prosperity of Washington.

In the House of Representatives a resolution was adopted for the appointment of three Commissioners to attend the Morse memorial ceremonies.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The House has passed a bill for the relief of the heirs of the late J. M. Botts of Virginia, which provides for the payment to the said heirs of $1,000.16 for damages done the property of the deceased during the war.

The Senate postponed the consideration of the bill for the relief of Joseph Segar of Virginia, which provides for paying him $15,000 for the use and occupation of his property in Elizabeth City County during the war.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The meeting of the Democratic National Committee is called for Wednesday, the 5th of May next at the residence of the chairman, August Belmont, in this city. "The usage is," says the World, "to summon the committee by private note and not by a published call, and in accordance with which the usual letters have been sent out by Mr. Belmont." Although the purpose of the meeting is not specified in the call it is understood that the object is to designate the day and place for the assembling of the Democratic National Convention to nominate candidates for President and Vice President.

The same journal adds that the pro-tem chairman of the committee, Mr. Belmont, in this call has met the approval of the leaders of the democracy. The delay seems to have been occasioned with the view to take advantage of the Cincinnati Convention, the results of which, say the World, may determine as to the time for holding the Democratic National Convention.

Joseph Prince, in a fit yesterday, fell through a hatchway, forty feet, and killed himself.

The sudden death of Dr. Woodhull, the former husband of the woman Victoria C. Woodhull, on Sunday night, in this city, was the occasion of a great deal of excitement among the Woodhull family.

It seems that the deceased had been a long time intemperate and indulged in morphine. Some of the family were very much excited and expressed the opinion that the old man had been badly treated by the family. The coroner, however, certified that his death was due to intemperance and morphine.

Orance Judd and J. H. Ockershausen have been elected delegates to the general Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church which opens next in Brooklyn.

George Dietz, a prominent German journalist, died here Sunday night.

At a meeting of the Clearing House, yesterday, a report was submitted showing the criminality of the Tenth National Bank in the matter of the lack up of money. The sentiment of about one third of the meeting favored the expulsion of the bank from the Association, but a resolution was adopted, which simply puts the bank on its good behavior in future.

The Tribune says that Senator Fenton will probably address a meeting of Liberal Republicans at Cooper Institute Friday evening. Carl Schurz is to address a meeting of German citizens at Cooper Institute on Wednesday evening.

The payment of a dividend of 25 per cent. to the Guardian Savings Bank creditors commenced yesterday.

The Committee of Seventy last evening recommended the consolidation of parties to secure a good municipal government.

False Rumors.—LONDON, April 9.—On a telegraphic hint from New York, inquiry has been made concerning the pretended rumors of Victoria's abdication, and there can be no doubt that the whole story is the purest invention. There is not the slightest foundation for the pretence of such a rumor in anything published or currently reported here. The continental correspondents of London journals find a profitable subject for ridicule in the stories which the German and French newspapers indulge in concerning the Queen's visit to Baden Baden, its objects and possible results, but even the wildest of these romances has not hinted at Victoria's abdication.

Scandal.—NEW YORK, April 9.—A London letter says that the object of the visit of the Queen to Germany, though ostensibly to see her half sister, the Princess Hohenlohe-Langenburg, is really to hush up the scandal which threatens the Royal family. The story is that Prince Zek, son of Prince Alexander, of Wurtemberg, has been accompanied in his late travels by a well known actress, that the Princess Zek, Princess Mary of Cambridge, who was born in 1823, and who is four years the senior of her husband, was so enraged thereby that she was about to apply for a divorce, to prevent which, Her Majesty went to Baden.

The Markets.—NEW YORK, April 9.—Stocks very strong. Gold steady at 105. Money 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 per cent. Va. 6's 35; new 5's. Flour quiet and drooping. Wheat dull and heavy. Corn quiet and drooping.

BALTIMORE, April 9.—Va. 6's, old, 40; do. consolidated, 54; ex-coupons, West Va. 15. Cotton dull; low middling 22 1/2 to 23. Flour active and strong; choice Western and Howard street extras 54 1/2. Wheat firm; Pennsylvania 184 1/2. Corn quiet but firm; white and yellow Southern 66 1/2; yellow Western nominally at 65; mixed Western 63 1/2. Oats steady at 65; Western 54 1/2; Southern 55 1/2. Rye quiet and unchanged at 90 1/2.

Local Brevities.—This is said to be good fishing weather. A heavy fog prevailed on the river this morning.

To-day is the anniversary of the surrender of Gen. Lee's army at Appomattox.

Writers in the Washington Chronicle are making complaints and accusations against the W. & O. R. R.

Attention is directed to the advertisement on fourth page of the Gazette, of sale of household furniture of the estate of Mrs. Turner, deceased, to take place to-morrow on the premises, 42 Oranoke street.

Weather Report.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,

WASHINGTON, April 9, 10 a. m.

Synopsis for the Past Twenty-four Hours.

The barometer has continued highest over the Atlantic States, but fallen somewhat. The lowest barometer, which on Monday morning was over eastern Kansas and western Iowa, has moved northward over Wisconsin to probably upper Michigan. Cloudy weather and rain, continue over the Upper Lake region, with fresh to brisk westerly winds, and over the Middle and New England States with fresh to brisk easterly winds. Clear and pleasant water is now prevailing from the Ohio valley southward over the interior of the Southern States, with light southwesterly winds, but partially cloudy weather continues over the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts, with light to fresh southerly to westerly winds. Very heavy rains prevailed on Monday over the Ohio valley and southward over Tennessee and Arkansas.

Probabilities.—The lowest barometer over upper Michigan will move northward in Canada, with diminishing pressure over the Middle and New England States, where the winds will gradually veer to southerly and westerly.

Rising barometer, westerly to northwesterly winds and clearing weather will extend eastward to Michigan, Lake Erie, western Pennsylvania and Maryland by Tuesday evening and over the Middle and New England States very generally by Wednesday morning.

Fresh to brisk northwesterly winds are probable for the Upper Lake region during to-day, and extend over the lower Lake region to-night. Increasing easterly to southerly winds are probable for the East and Middle Atlantic coasts to-day, but dangerous winds are not anticipated.

Mr. J. R. Taylor, of Fairfax C. H., favorably known in this section as a thorough business man is now connected with Green's Wholesale Notion House as travelling salesman.

With Mr. Taylor's popularity as a merchant, in addition to the large stock represented, he cannot fail to add greatly to the wholesale interest of our city.

COMMITTEE MEETING.—The Committee appointed at the Citizens' Meeting to raise subscriptions for the rebuilding of the Market House Steeple will meet in the counting room of the Gazette's office, on Thursday next, at 11 o'clock a. m.

SPECIAL NOTICES.—THE PRICE OF HEALTH, like that of liberty, is eternal vigilance. The vapor-laden air of spring exercises a depressing influence on the system. The strongest feel this devitalizing effect; the weak are prostrated by it. Everybody is more or less debilitated at this season, and the feeble instinctively seek the help of medicine. Unfortunately, the remedy resorted to is quinine, which aggravates the malady. Quinine is an eminently pernicious substance, and drastic cathartics about as bad. The vital principle needs succor and support, and a reinforcing preparation that will tone and rouse, while it regulates and purifies the system, is the medicine that nature demands. All the medicinal elements required for such emergencies are combined in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the purest and most efficacious vegetable elixir that the world has ever known. It is a mild stimulant, a powerful tonic, an unqualified appetizer, an absolute specific for diseased digestion, a wonderful nerve, a moderate cathartic, a remedy for liver complaints and periodic fevers, a cure for constipation, a specific for rheumatism, of essential use in all ailments to which the feeble sex are subject, and a most valuable agent in the treatment of all morbidities. These are the properties which have made Hostetter's Bitters famous everywhere. See to it, however, that you have the true article, for the land is infested with swarms of local bitters, made from condensed liquors and worthless drugs, which greedy stretchers who speculate on human life recommend as panaceas for every ill that flesh is heir to. Beware of the charlatans and their poisons.

DR. TUTT'S PILLS is a purely vegetable combination for keeping the bowels in natural motion and cleansing the system of all impurities, and a positive cure for Constipation. They restore the diseased liver, stomach and kidneys to a healthy action, while at the same time they brace and invigorate the whole system.

Rome, Georgia, January 11, 1871.
Dr. W. H. Tutt: Dear Sir—Having used your Liver Pills and finding none that have done my wife or myself as much good, I would like to know if you would do as well North as here. I intend going North in March, and if they will have the same effect as in this climate, I want to take them on with me. Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain your obedient servant,
HENRY A. HILLS
